

1. Do different lighting conditions significantly impact accident severity?
2. Are more accidents occurring during daylight than at night?
3. Is there a specific time of day when accidents are most frequent?
4. How does Junction Control on Specific Peak Hours Contribute to Accidents?
5. Is there a correlation between the number of vehicles involved in an accident and the number of casualties?
6. Do roads with higher speed limits (50+) have more severe accidents compared to lower speed limits (<30) in Different Weather Types?
7. Are rural road accidents at higher speed limits more severe than urban road accidents at the same speed limits?

8. Do accidents in urban areas occur more frequently during the day, while rural accidents occur more frequently at night?

9. Do adverse weather conditions contribute to a higher frequency of accidents compared to fine weather in Day and Night?

10. Are multi-casualty accidents more common at specific types of junctions compared to others?

11. Do certain road types combined with specific weather conditions lead to more severe accidents?

12. How does Type of Road and Type of Surface of the road contributes in Road Accidents?

13. Does Accidents and Casualties depends upon different seasons?